

MLK9 Dog Training

MLK9 Dog Training offers one of the most comprehensive dog training programs available. Our Knoxville dog training has the tools and resources needed to train dogs effectively. So, if you are looking for the ultimate dog training program, look no further.

With many years of experience training farm and working dogs, Police K9s, and thousands of pet dogs in between, MLK9 head trainer Mike Lilley is committed to providing a comprehensive level of training that will last you the lifetime of your dog. Every training package is customized based on your needs and goals to build a stable, confident bond between you and your dog.

Becoming a dog parent can be a significant turning point in your life. Deciding to do the training yourself is an option. However, you will quickly realize that dog training is not an easy task and requires a lot of time, patience, and consistency.
